Lemonade Stand to Support QAS

There are many ways to support QAS. This summer four young girls held a lemonade stand to benefit the animal shelter because they had lost their beloved dog, Wyatt. Wyatt passed in the summer of 2011 at the age of 12. It was their way of doing something special in his memory. Wyatt was a fun, gentle warm yellow lab. He waited patiently for each and every one of the girls when they arrived home from the hospital after their birth. The love he gave to each individual was unconditional. He did his share of mischievous things, such as chewing each and every kitchen chair, every window, the kitchen draws, and the floor!!!! But still, he was the girls' inspiration for the lemonade stand. They wanted to pitch in towards the possibility of help finding a forever home for a loving pet in need of a family! The four girls, Ryleigh Gilmartin, Andrea Cristiani, Abigail Gilmartin, and Bridget Gilmartin came by QAS and presented a check to QAS' Shelter Director, Siobhan McCann. The girls and their family believe without having had Wyatt in their lives, their lives would have been so different. They believe if families have the opportunity to adopt a pet, they should, because the pet would add so much fulfillment to their family. These girls knew this when they decided to have the lemonade stand for the animals of QAS. Thanks so much!!

From the President

It has been an overwhelming year to date. Never before have I seen so many animals dumped outside of our door and left to fend for themselves in different parts of the city. We have a waiting list of cats to be surrendered, and have had 60 kittens in foster care this summer! Some of the stray dogs have been "seniors", and/or ones with medical issues. Pops, as we like to call him, is a big, old mixed breed dog, about 10 years old. He was found with multiple large tumors hanging off of him and one in the center of his back that was ulcerated and would not heal. He did very poorly in the shelter environment; leaving us concerned about his future.

One of our volunteers fell in love with him, and she brought him home to foster... Having a husband and 2 pit bulls of her own, we were wondering how it would go. Perfectly is the answer. Pops made himself at home, winning over both the husband and the 2 dogs! We took him to the Vet for an evaluation, and the determination was that the open tumor on his back had to be removed as it wasn't going to heal. The others, though unsightly, were best left alone. So this lucky dog had his surgery, and is living out his days with our wonderful volunteer, Dorothy and her family! It is your continued support that allows us to treat a dog like Pops, letting him live out whatever time he has left in a warm, loving environment.

We just learned that Pops passed peacefully in his sleep, crossing the Rainbow Bridge this morning. It is September 26, 2012. We thank Dorothy and family for giving him what may have been the best days of his life!

We have had several emergency medical issues this year alone, and happily, we have been able to take care of each of them. Please consider a donation to our Mickey Medical Fund. It provides monies for above and beyond medical care to our animals. You really can make a difference! On behalf of the animals who cannot speak for themselves, I thank you.

Kit Burke
President

Animal Control Corner

Our volunteers are relentless in their commitment to the shelter. Cleaning, feeding, walking, and spending quality time with the dogs and cats before they find their forever homes. We still need donations from the general public to take care of our animals before they leave us. Please check out our Wish List and do whatever you can.

Thank you

Don Conboy Jr, Quincy Animal Control Officer

Kitten Explosion Thanks

Dear Friends of QAS,

The Board of Directors and the volunteers of QAS want to express our deepest gratitude for the outstanding response to our plea for Fancy Feast Kitten food during our "kitten explosion" in July. We received cases of food dropped off at the shelter, as well as cash donations thru our PayPal account, by mail or folks coming in to drop off a donation. These donations got us thru July and most of August. Another expense is that all of these kittens needed medical exams, spay/neuter, and a micro chip before being available for adoption. So, some of the cash donations were used to offset these expenses.

We still have the "fall kitten season" coming up and are now getting calls to take in more kittens. Your continuing support is always appreciated and every donation of any amount means we can continue to care for these babies until they find their forever home. Thank you for caring,

Peg O'Brien, Secretary, Board of Directors, a/k/a Auntie Peg

QAS 4th Annual Parrot Head Beach Party

Once again, many of the Shelter's friends and family gathered together at the Beachcomber on Quincy Shore Drive on July 28, 2012 to participate in our 3rd Annual Parrot Head Beach Party fundraiser. Event coordinators were Nancy Harris, Catherine Parsons, and Julianne Coleman Fonseca. Everyone sported their flashiest tropical garb while enjoying Jimmy Buffet style music, lots of snacks and dancing. Representative Bruce Ayers and Representative Walter Timolty joined in the fun to support QAS.

There were fun activities like Jimmy Buffet trivia, hula-hoop contests, dancing, and lots and lots of laughs. DJ Dave Fuller spun Jimmy Buffet tunes as well as other types of music. The event took place in the outdoor bar area which added to the tropical mood and provided a beautiful view of Quincy Bay and the Boston skyline. The rain held off until almost the end of the party, but it didn't put a damper on everyone's fun! Inside the Beachcomber people took chances on different raffle prizes which were generously donated by our thoughtful Shelter supporters.

This yearly event generated $3000, which will benefit the animals of QAS. Like the previous two years, everyone agreed that the event was a blast! It provided an opportunity for the Shelter to add to their much needed funding, and a chance to relax with friends and family.

As Jimmy would say "It's these changes in latitudes, changes in attitudes, nothing remains quite the same. With all of our running and all of our cunning, if we couldn't laugh we would all go insane".

About Us

The Quincy Animal Shelter is a volunteer-run organization. The Shelter has only one paid staff and relies completely on our volunteers and the community for support.

Incorporated in November 1999 as a non-profit Massachusetts charity, we are also a recognized charity under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Service code. Since 1999 the Quincy Animal Shelter has placed more than 5,000 cats and dogs into loving and forever homes through out MA and New England.

As a "no kill" shelter, we make every effort to find the right home for every animal in our care. This means we exercise the same ethical and humane treatment of animals in our facility that you would for your own family feline or canine friend. Every animal receives age-appropriate vaccinations and, if old enough, is spayed or neutered before finding its forever family.

Delivering this type of care involves many volunteers, an active and dedicated management, and a lot of money. Our budget runs approximately $100,000 every year in order to keep doing what we do to help the dogs and cats of Quincy. Please visit our Volunteers and Wish List pages to find out about ways you can help.

Our capacity at the Shelter is limited to a maximum of 12 dogs and 15 to 25 cats, depending on ages and condition of the cats. Our dream is to eventually find a larger facility so that we can continue our mission on a larger scale and serve the continuous needs of the community and the animals.

Letter from Luke's New Forever Home

Smash! Crash! Crunch! Is that a bear in the woods or a small freight train pushing its way through the underbrush? No, it's Luke the Dog tearing his way through the woods near our farm where he came to live this spring from the Quincy Animal Shelter. Luke is an individual who believes in living life to its fullest, and preferably at high speed. The moment I saw his picture on Pet Finder, I was excited. My husband Bill and I own another rescue dog, a female pit bull mix who is a dear, but very dog aggressive. Nell was bereft after the passing of her venerable "brother" some months before. We were also grieving, and although after a lifetime spent with dogs I knew that one can ever find a "replacement." I was looking for another dog to fill some of the aching space left in our family. I've come to love bully breeds, and Luke certainly qualifies and I knew a male would work best with Nell — and Luke is all boy. His description included accolades for his temperament, and that was really important to us.

After careful introductions, Nell and he decided each other were okay and Luke soon came home to our 30 acre farm in Ware.

Bliss right? Well, sort of. First, there were the horses. A city boy born, Luke was astounded and intensely curious. He almost pulled Jeanie, his trainer under the fence trying desperately to get into the horse paddock to investigate more closely during the site visit. And then there was the morning he leapt a four foot wooden stall door right into the presence of our most volatile gelding. I think Luke began to take me seriously when I rescued him from that stall. Now, Luke believes he is the shepherd of the horse herd. He has learned to be polite and has also learned the joy of — ahem — "horse cookies".

He often follows our three out to the pasture and likes to graze along with them for a bit before tearing back to the barn to clean out their grain dishes....so helpful. If he hears the horses running in the pasture, he is frantic to check out the situation and make sure everyone is safe. He is transforming himself into a country dog, for sure. His greatest reward is to go for a run in the woods, off leash with Nell at his side. He plunges into the woods, smells everything, checks out the wetlands, leaps tall stumps with a single bound. Playing with Luke in the woods, the years melt off of our 10 year old Nell, and she still can keep up with him in a race — until he turns on the after burners.

He is very fond of his older sister, and takes her instructions and admonitions seriously (she has mastered the "dope" snarl). My favorite Luke story is the day he and Nell came back from a run covered in mud. I washed Nell off in the barnyard with the hose, and she cringed as always, trying to make me believe that water is dreadfully painful. As I turned my back on Luke to dry her off, he attacked the offending hose and bit the end right off. No skinny green piece of rubber was going to stress HIS sister!

Luke's life is not all fun and games, he works hard at his obedience work most every day. He heels perfectly, does a fine automatic sit, and we're working on recall and finish, and stand for examination. This is not his favorite part of life, but he humors me and plays along, and of course has become much more reliable in all situations and more focused. I really want him to get his CGC eventually.

And at night he knows that the whole family will be together, and if he's feeling a bit needy, there is always a lap to crawl into (all 60+ lbs of him) or someone to snuggle with. We all love him and I could tell Luke stories all day long. We are so appreciative of the solid work that we know the good folks from the Quincy Animal Shelter did to give him a great start. He came to us well socialized, perfectly crate trained and house broken. He knew his basic commands and recognized that people can be trusted. He is a dog that had the love and respect of good people.

Pet Spotlight

Meet: FRANKIE

Hi, wanna go for a walk? My name is Frankie and I'm one year old Pit Bull Mix. I have lots of energy so I would love it if my new owners gave me some basic training. I would be great at Agility training! I like some dogs, but we'd have to meet before I could live with another one. I can also live with teenagers that are 16 years and older.

Meet: SCOUT

Scout is a striking black and white cat brought to us as a stray. He had some painful dental problems that have since been resolved. In spite of the pain he must have had in the beginning, he has been a sweet affectionate boy since the moment he arrived. He is about 10 years old and will make a gentle loving companion to the right person. He would like a human, a soft bed and perhaps a windowsill for his golden years. If you are looking for a calm, gentle, affectionate companion, you will find no better cat than our Scout. Come in and meet him. He is such a love and he deserves his own home very soon. Please don't make him wait.

Happy Tails and Purrfect Endings

Dear Quincy Animal Shelter, I adopted Reilly from you in 2005. He wanted to give you an update and send you a few pictures. See below:

Hello! Seven years ago now, you found me a loving home and I wanted to give you an update and thank you again for everything you've done for me! I am doing really well. When you first got me, you had to shave me because with my long hair and having been abandoned, I looked quite horrific. It made me feel self-conscious for a while (every time I saw a mirror I couldn't help but look at myself!). But as you can see from the attached pictures, my hair has grown back and I am quite handsome those days. You had named me Phinney but my mom is French and she told me that it sounded like a word meaning "over" in her native language, so she thought Reilly would be more appropriate for my new beginning and I hope you'll agree that I certainly own the name now!

I am still a catnip junkie and despite being 7 years older (don't tell anybody but I turned 9 this year!), I still run around the house and play like a kitten. Every night when my mom comes home, I come greet her at the door and purr for 5 minutes. We really love each other! My mom has even found me a dad who has become equally crazy about me (Can you blame him? I am so cute!). So as you can see, life is really good here!

Thank you so much for taking such good care of me and finding me a loving home and I can't wait for my parents to get a bigger home so we can find me another buddy to play with because I really love other cats (there is a picture with my friend, Duc, who stays with us during holidays...of course when she stays over, I let her have the cozy bed and I get the floor...what can I say...I am a real gentleman).

Love, Reilly

TJ relaxing poolside on the deck! He is SO NOT spoiled! TJ is the sweetest little boy with the cutest little piggies..... Hey!, it's a Mom thing! Thank you for taking care of our furry friends while they find their forever home ~

Elaine L.

Hi everyone it's me...Ziggy (formerly Ethan)!

I was adopted from the shelter in March of 2012 by a wonderful family. They had two 11 month old kittens name Lulu and Momo they had adopted from a shelter in Vermont. Sadly Lulu died from FIP, a fatal feline disease the month before. Mommie wanted someone to play with Momo and to keep her company while they were at work, also to help her get over missing her sister. So they came to the Quincy animal shelter to find Momo, a partner in crime. Out of all the kittens there they picked me. They took me home to meet my new big sister. I was very scared at first but they were patient, my Mommie and her son patted me, played with me and fed me treats until I adjusted.

We have a three level, 5 foot tall scratching post. Mommy put it in the big front window so Momo and I can be part of the neighborhood watch team. Momo and I like to race up it and play king of the mountain. We also have two cat condos...one in blue and one in pink, guess which one is mine? lol. We have lots of toys, my favorite is a ball of crinkly paper that is fun to bat around. Momo is a cool big sister, oh she hissed and growled a lot at first, but once we decided we liked each other we started bonding and playing together. We get along great now and are inseparable. Momo also has lots of energy like me. Our favorite time to play is at 4:00 Am when everyone is asleep. We run up and down the stairs and growl, Momo meows and I squeak. I don't know how to meow so I squeak, my Mommy thinks it is funny and calls me Squeaker, lol.

I am really happy my Mommy and her son found me and brought me in to their family. I like my big sister Momo, she is really fun to be around. Well, Momo is waiting for me to go play king of the scratching post ...I hope I win today!

Hope you all have a purrfect day! Love Ziggy
